CLOSING A WITHHOLDING TAX ACCOUNT

You must notify the Missouri Department of Revenue to close your employer withholding tax account. The department will not automatically close the account because you stop making payments and stop filing returns.

If any of the following apply, you should complete Form MO-941F to close your employer withholding tax account:

- You no longer do business in the state of Missouri.
- You no longer have employees working in the state of Missouri.
- You have any change of ownership.
- Your FEIN has been changed and you have been issued a new federal employer withholding tax number.

Failure to notify the department that you have closed your account will cause nonfiler notices and estimated tax liabilities to be issued. If you receive a nonfiler notice, you must complete a return and remit the actual amount of tax withheld or submit a zero return, whichever applies. Failure to do so will result in further collection activity on the estimated tax liability, until your account is resolved.

Mail your Form MO-941F, Employer's Withholding Final Report to the Missouri Department of Revenue, Division of Taxation and Collection, P.O. Box 3300, Jefferson City, MO 65105-3300.

PLEASE NOTE: If you are also registered for sales tax, a separate final sales tax return must be filed in order to close your sales tax account.
